

PAIN SCIENCE AND RECOVERY
Presented by:
Neil Pearson

MSc, BScPT, BA-BPHE, CYT, RYT500
Registered Physiotherapist, Yoga Therapist,
Clinical Faculty University of BC,
Chair Pain Science Division of the CPA

Neil Pearson is an internationally recognized speaker on chronic pain, and is at the forefront of global pain management.

CURRENT TREATMENT FOR PEOPLE WITH PERSISTANT PAIN — 2010

HEALTH PROFESSIONALS WORKSHOP

- Date: Tuesday, September 28, 2010.
Location: Queen Alexandra Auditorium, 2400 Arbutus Road, Victoria
Time: 8:30 am - 4:30 pm
Cost: $175.00 Before August 20 Early Bird Special!
$200.00 After August 20
Includes: CME credits, workbook, coffee break and lunch.

PUBLIC PAIN FORUM

- Date: Wednesday, September 29, 2010.
Location: RJH, Begbie Hall
Time: 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
Cost: By donation
Includes: Workbook, coffee break

ADVANCED COURSE FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

- Date: Thursday, September 30, 2010
Location: Comox, location TBA

AT THESE EVENTS, NEIL WILL:

- ◆ Present the anatomy and neurophysiology of our pain system
- ◆ Discuss the changes that occur in the pain system when pain persists
- ◆ Present research findings regarding assessment and treatment of people in pain.
- ◆ Present a new optimistic model for pain management.
- ◆ Discuss self management techniques for reducing pain and recovering movement.
- ◆ Discuss inter-relationships with disability management models.
- ◆ Present prevention and treatment interventions to make immediate changes in clinical practice.

For more information or to register please contact:

Linda Cundiff
linda.cundiff@viha.ca
250-370-8111 Local
13815

Sponsored by the VIHA Pain Program
RJH Site

